Family Christmas Eve Service

When the goodness and loving-kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:4-7

Welcome

Call to Worship

Psalm 96:1-2, 11-13

One: O sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth.

All: Sing to the LORD, bless God's name; tell of salvation from day to day.

One: Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;

All: Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; let the field exult, and everything in it.

One: Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy before the LORD; for God is coming—coming to judge the earth.

All: The Lord will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with truth.

Carol – Joy to the World

CH # 143

Words: Isaac Watts; Music: G. F. Handel; arr. Lowell Mason

Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King; Let every heart prepare him room, and heaven and nature sing; and heaven and nature sing; and heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world, the Savior reigns! Let all their tongues employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains repeat the sounding joy; repeat the sounding joy; repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love;
and wonders of his love; and wonders, wonders of his love.

Invocation (in unison)

O God, you have made this holy night to shine with the true Light. We thank you for your gift of Jesus Christ to the whole world. Grant us also your Holy Spirit to empower us to do our part to bring peace and goodwill to our families, our communities, and the world. In the blessed name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Lighting of the Advent Candles

One: We light the first candle as a sign of our hope in God and in the promise of God's kingdom. That we may patiently wait and prepare ourselves for the coming of the Lord —

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the world, shine in our lives and shine among us now.

One: We light the second candle as a sign of God's promised peace. That we may always work and pray for God's shalom—justice, mercy, and peace for all —

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the world, shine in our lives and shine among us now.

One: We light the third candle as in anticipation of the joy God promises for all people. That we may joyfully bear witness to the work of God's Spirit among us —

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the world, shine in our lives and shine among us now.

One: We light the fourth candle as a sign of God's love for us in Christ, now and always. That we may trust that God is with us and live in the light of Christ —

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the world, shine in our lives and shine among us now.

The Lighting of the Christ Candle

One: We light the Christ candle as a sign of the Good News of great joy! For the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has never been able to put it out. That we may know the warmth and brightness of Jesus Christ, and show Christ's love to the world —

All: Jesus Christ, Light of the world, shine in our lives and shine among us now. Alleluia! Amen.

A Little Child Will Come to Lead Us
Words: Nancy Price; Music: Don Besig

A Christmas Prayer

My sisters and brothers in the peace of God, all the gifts we shall give and receive in these days are but small tokens of the gift that shines forth in God's word made flesh this night. From grateful hearts let us intercede for all who find themselves longing for this deepest, truest gift, saying:

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the peace proclaimed by angels in the shepherds' field might be realized in every place of conflict and on every street of violence:

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the child born to us might find in our hearts warm welcome by our openness to the needs of the homeless and the hungry and our willingness to nourish the growth of our souls:

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That in this season of goodwill we might become more responsive to the abandoned, the despairing, and the mourning.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the rejoicing of this day might be a bond leading us to true communion of life and worship through the fellowship of the Church.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad.

That the healing presence of the Great Physician might come to all who are living with disease or illness.

That the guidance and comfort of the Wonderful Counselor might re-direct the path of those who are lost or seeking their way through difficulties in life.

That the angels may join in our chorus of gratitude and thanksgiving for our loved ones; and that the blessed hope we celebrate this night might be the fulfillment of all who have gone before us in faith.

Let the heavens rejoice; and let the earth be glad. Alleluia. Amen.

The Offering

The spirit of Christmas is the spirit of giving. God gave us the greatest gift in the Birth of Jesus. The Wise Men brought their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh. We bring our regular gifts and tithes to support God's continuing work through the Church. Our special Christmas Offering remembers retired pastors of the United Church of Christ.

Please remain seated and join in singing the carol as the offering plates are passed.

Carol – What Child Is This

CH # 162

Words: William Dix; Music: GREENSLEEVES English Melody

What Child is this, who, laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud, the Babe, the Son of Mary!

Why lies He in such mean estate, Where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear: for sinners here The silent Word is pleading.

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud, the Babe, the Son of Mary!

So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh, Come, peasant, king to own
Him. The King of kings salvation brings; Let loving hearts enthrone Him.

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud, the Babe, the Son of Mary!

Prayer of Dedication

Lord God, you have pierced the darkness of the night with the coming of the True Light; you have broken the silence with Word made flesh. May our words of praise and our very lives reflect the rays of your holy light, and may our petitions and acts of mercy be strong echoes of your Christmas word, so that all might come to the peace you promise in Jesus, who reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, this night and forever.

Amen.

Lighting our Candles

John 8:12; Matthew 5:14a, 16

Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." And he said, "You are the light of the world. . . . Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven."

Please form a circle around the sanctuary. As we pass the light, keep the lit candle upright. Tilt the unlit candle to the flame of the lit candle.

Carol – Silent Night, Holy Night – vv. 1, 2 & 3

CH # 145

Words: Joseph Mohr; tr. John Young; Music: Franz Gruber

Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.

Holy Infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight.

Glories stream from heaven afar, heav'nly hosts sing, Alleluia!

Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night! Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face

with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

Benediction

Glory to God in the highest! And on earth, peace, goodwill to all.
Merry and Blessed Christmas!
